Thought for the day

Peace: It does not mean to be in a place where there is no noise, trouble, or hard work. It means to be in the midst of those things and still be calm in your heart.

CoVid19 Stay Safe

Remember to continue with Social Distancing and hand sanitizing so we all continue to stay safe.

Did you know?

Roy Cleveland Sullivan was struck by lightning seven times over his career as a US park ranger, which earned him a Guinness World Record and the nickname "Human Lightning Rod."

In the Garden... Planting pretty borders to edge a garden or fill in blank spaces in and around your garden or pots, Lobelia, Sweet William and Virginian Stock work a treat. Other low growing plants are Livingstone Daisies and Portulaca make stunning displays. Calendula grow approximately 18cm and make a nice happy show of brilliant orange and yellow flowers lasting a long time against their dark green foliage. All these flowers will self seed and you will have them for many seasons. Now is a good time for planting seeds or plants of Capsicum, Tomato, Spinach or Silver Beet in the veggie patch for early picking. Happiness blooms where seeds of love and joy are planted.

Cheers Wendy Garvie

Singapore Chilli Crab

- 3 Blue swimmer crabs (cleaned and segmented)
- 1/2 cup of vegetable oil
- 1 cup of tomato sauce
- 2 tablespoons of light soy sauce
- 3 tablespoons of palm sugar or caster sugar
- 2 tablespoons sambal oelek (chilli relish, available at most supermarkets)
- 2 cloves of garlic (diced)
- Good knob of ginger (peeled and julienned)
- 3 spring onions sliced
- Small bunch of coriander (chopped)

Method

To clean the crabs, remove the shell and clean out the insides and remove the 'dead man's fingers.' Quarter the crab by cutting in half and then cutting in half again.

To make the sauce, combine half of the vegetable oil, the tomato sauce, light soy sauce, sambal oelek, garlic and ginger. Mix and set aside.

Heat the remaining oil in a wok or large saucepan or pot. Add the crabs and cook until their colour has changed to a bright red.

Add the sauce and continue to cook until the sauce has reduced somewhat and the crabs are cooked.

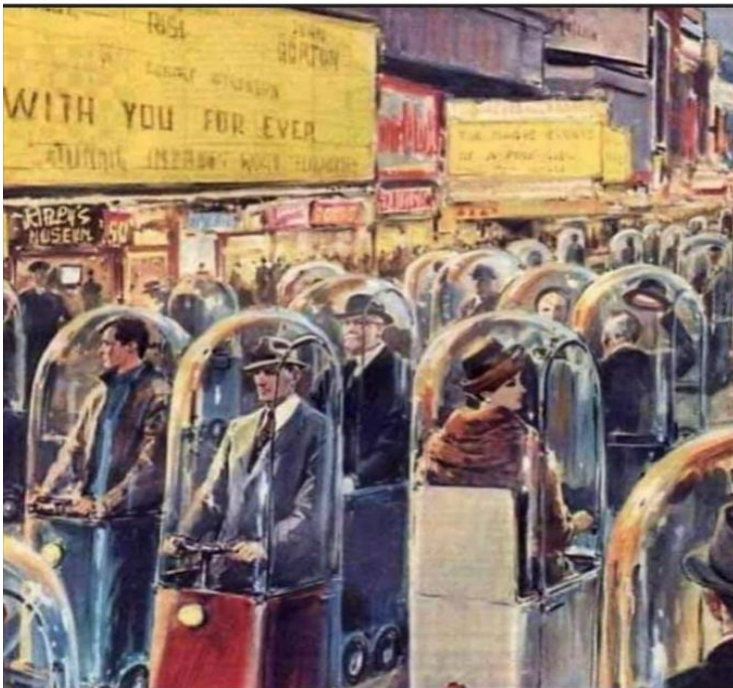

Remove the crabs and place on a serving platter.

Add the coriander and spring onions to the sauce, stirring quickly for about 30 seconds and then pour over the crabs.

Garnish with some more coriander or spring onions and serve with rice.
