Rear Access to Liberty Service Station NOW OPEN.

Thank you to the Karalis Family, Proprietors of Liberty Service Station, and the Wakefield Regional Council and Mr. Malcolm May, Councillor, for making access from East Street to the Liberty Service Station. This enables pedestrians, prams, pushers, bicycles, mobility scooters, wheelchairs and their ilk access to 24/7 in safety. We are very appreciative of the work put in to have this happen for us all.

Sincerely,
Wendy Garvie

In the Garden 2021 no 22

It's nearly the festive season, so any jobs we need to do that are outstanding, we had best do them before the celebrations start.

If you planted cucumbers and they are looking a bit tatty, sow a couple more now and they will replace the older ones. Garlic can be harvested too if the tops are drying off. Hang them in bunches in a dry, airy area for around a month so they can cure before storing. All the little odd jobs we have promised ourselves we'd do, now we can.

To plant on the week-end in the Vegie patch is Broccoli, Dill, Ginger and Zucchini. If you're planting Flowers, you may like these: Dianthus, Gerbera, Portulaca, Phlox.

If you have not had a great deal of success planting seeds, perhaps they are planted too deeply. The rule of thumb is a seed should be planted no more than twice its own diameter beneath the soil. Happy Gardening!

Cheers
Wendy Garvie.

Yesterday's News

(The Chronicle March 4, 1905)

PORT WAKEFIELD

February 21.— The Grant's Hill Methodist Sunday-school children and their parents held a very enjoyable picnic at the Port Arthur Beach on Monday. The party left Grant's Hill about 7.30 a.m. in charge of the superintendent (Mr. James Sampson), and the 14 miles was traversed in good time, the visitors being most fortunate in finding a good tide, which, with the pleasant day, helped to make the outing a success in every way. This port which is situated at the opposite side of the gulf to Port Wakefield, can boast of a splendid beach, on which the children engaged in the usual footraces and other games, and wound up with a good paddle in the briny.

February 23.— On Monday a strongly built man of robust appearance was arrested by the police for begging and resisting capture, and sentenced to 14 days' imprisonment at Wallaroo the following day. — At an early hour this morning a burglarious visit was paid to the residence of Mr. N. Nicholls in Edward-street, and from a safe under the back verandah some meat and butter was abstracted. Some cakes of soap and a couple of towels were also taken. No attempt was made to enter the house.
