Port Wakefield CFS Captain Awarded Premier's Certificate of Recognition

Congratulations to CFS Captain Warren Miller for receiving the Premier's Certificate of Recognition for Outstanding Volunteer Service. Captain Miller was presented the award by CFS Regional Commander Steven Salamon at the Rising Sun Hotel on June 12th, SA Volunteers Day.

Thought for the day

You can do or be whatever you want in your own life. Nothing can stop you, except your own fears. Don't blame anyone else. You have the power to make the decision. Just do it.

- Nola Diamantopoulos

We acknowledge the Kaurna people as the traditional custodians of the Adelaide Plains and pay our respects to Elders past, present, and emerging.

Newsletter Advertising Rates

Cast your mind back to 2014. 'Happy' by Pharrell Williams was the biggest song of the year. PM Tony Abbott gave Prince Phillip a knighthood for some reason. And a quarter-page ad in our newsletter cost $7.50 -- which it still does today.

But we've been going over the books, and it turns out leaving our ad rates unchanged for a decade isn't a great idea if we want to keep paying the bills. Unfortunately, as our costs continue to increase, we'll need to raise prices from next year to keep the newsletter afloat.

Starting from January 2024, our new rates will be: Full Page Ad- $30, Half Page- $17.50, Quarter Page- $12.50, and Business Directory- $200. Short classified ads of 2-3 lines will remain free.

Thank you to all our advertisers for their support over the years. We hope you can stay on board and help our community newsletter thrive for many more to come.

A vibrant poster for a 'BINGO NIGHT' event. The background is dark red. At the top, there are three bingo cards in blue, green, and red, each with a grid and the word 'BINGO' written across it. Scattered around the cards are several bingo balls with numbers: 1, 2, 3, 6, 8, 9, and 24. There are also several gold coins. The word 'BINGO' is written in large, white, bold letters, with 'NIGHT' written in a yellow, cursive font below it. Below the title, there is text: 'Get ready to shout "BINGO!" and win some amazing prizes at this fun-filled event. Doors open at 6.00pm to give you time to buy your books, drinks, snacks and dobbers.' At the bottom, the event details are listed: 'FRIDAY 30TH JUNE | START AT 6.30 PM PORT WAKEFIELD SM HALL'. At the very bottom, it says 'FOR MORE INFORMATION pw.commevents@gmail.com'.

In the Garden

June 2023

This month keep your garden nourished and watered with a seaweed solution like Seasol. This helps to boost their resilience and encourages root growth.

Weeds slow down in winter but if you pull them when they're young they're easy to keep down.

It's a good idea to add a layer of mulch now too. Feed winter vegetables with good fertiliser.

June is the month for the best selection of fruit trees in your favourite garden centre.

It's time to plant onions and leeks, tomatoes, corn, beans, capsicum, chillies, basil, okra, pumpkins, melons, cucumbers and zucchinis.

Some flowers to plant now are: Ageratum, Cineraria, Carnations, Cornflowers, Geraniums, Impatiens, Marigold and Nemesia.

Happy Gardening,

Pelita

ROUND EIGHT ROUND UP

It may be a winter sport but the weekend's weather certainly tested the endurance with most players either getting wet or shivering through their games down at Virginia last Saturday.

Well done to the A grade, B grade, A1, A2, A4, U15 & U13b teams who came home with wins.

Some fast facts from Round 8:

- Our A grade kicked the highest score across the league's A grade competition on Saturday.
- Former player & 2019 premiers team member Luke Forrest pulled on the Eagles guernsey again for the day, popping up in our B grade line up. Luke headed over to the West Coast for work in 2020. But with his current club having a bye over the weekend, he offered to fill in if we needed. Thanks Luke, it was great to have you back & we really appreciated you helping out!
- Thanks also to the Virginia A grade coach & president who thoughtfully organised some slow cooked meat & rolls for our A grade boys in the rooms & some free jugs of beer in the club after. Having been thoroughly drenched during the game, this was greatly appreciated by our playing group!
- Well done to the Young sisters who both got best player in their games (Alexa in U15s & Halle in U13A's)
- Our A grade wore black arm bands in support of players Jamie Kovacic, and Dylan & Adam Irrgang, who all sadly lost uncles recently. Our sincere condolences to Jamie, Dylan & Adam and their families during this time.
- We've now reached the half way point of the season, with eight games down and eight to go.
- We have several players currently in the top 10 goal kickers (A grade's Henry Wright in 5th spot with 19 goals, B grade's Dustin Guthberg in 9th with 11 goals and Senior Colts' Dylan Martin in 9th with 12 goals)
- Our A2 netball team currently remains undefeated.
- Thanks to the Cathedral Hotel for hosting us again last Saturday night. It was great to see another good turnout of club people enjoying the night.

Congratulations to Ethan Kwaterski who's been selected to try out for the Central Zone, following his successful Landmark Cup weekend.

Next week is another away game, as we head to Rooster territory to take on Two Wells. See you there!

Port Wakefield Pups Enjoy Casterton Kelpie Festival.

Local dogs Busta, Bean, and Bailey recently enjoyed a road trip to Casterton, Victoria, to join the festivities at the town's annual Kelpie Festival. As the home of the first ever kelpie pup born in 1871, Casterton celebrates the breed every King's Birthday weekend with a street parade, friendly canine competitions, and Australia's biggest working dog auction.

Competing in the 50m Dash event, Busta ran a speedy 6.03 seconds to best his mates Bean (6.59) and Bailey (7.16). Busta and Bailey also completed the Hill Climb event, racing to the top of Blueberry Hill to meet their owners. Bean, however, became confused and ran in the opposite direction as his master yelled and waved his arms to no avail.

LET'S GLOW!

Peppermint Essential Oil Benefits – Part 3...

Welcome to Part 3 of Peppermint Essential Oil Benefits

How To Use Peppermint Essential Oil

One caution... Avoid direct use of peppermint with infants and young children. Due to its high menthol content, peppermint essential oil should never be used with infants or small children as it can cause life-threatening breathing problems.

Peppermint For Pain and Inflammation

Did you know that peppermint contains anti-inflammatory and pain-relieving properties? Peppermint's main constituent is menthol, which is commonly used in over-the-counter pain-reliever products. It's also responsible for the distinct cooling effect that happens when peppermint is used topically. This effect is soothing for skin inflammation [source], stiff joints, and muscle soreness.

A Hot Feet Fix...

Add peppermint EO to a cold compress and cool down your overworked feet. Or add it to a foot bath for a soothing soak.

A Joint Effort...

For a simple sore muscle and joint oil, combine a couple drops of peppermint essential oil with a carrier oil and rub on the sore area.

Peppermint For Room Sprays and Diffuser Oils

I love the aroma of peppermint, and I really enjoy using it in EO blends to scent my home. In a room spray, it can be used to deodorize specific areas of the house or simply to freshen up stale or stuffy air. It can also be diffused during the cold winter months to help invigorate you on an especially long winter day.

Awaken Your Senses...

Before your next workout, apply a bit of peppermint EO to your chest, or just take a deep breath straight from the open bottle. Then, after your workout, add it to your shampoo to stimulate your senses and help with scalp health.

Zero To Satiety in Seconds...

Most people eat until they feel full. Diffusing peppermint will help reign in the urge to snack on junk food. It's a good way for you to control your appetite and feel full faster.

Keep On Glowing!

Jaine Collins-Dodd

Exciting Incidents at Port Wakefield

One or two days last week were of a very exciting nature. It appears that the other night, when most people were slumbering, two of our sports, armed and fitted up with the latest appliances for duck shooting, were out in the back regions driving a buggy and pair. When passing a water hole by some means they shot and wounded a solitary teal duck which they found swimming about half asleep. The crippled bird flew away into the night, hotly pursued by the hunters and volleys of shot. So eager were they to effect a capture that, not noticing the track they were on, all hands including the duck landed in a bunch in a small lagoon.

The horses, in their hurry to get through, left the buggy up to the body in slimy mud and sought refuge on dry land, followed by the hunters, who, after a chase, captured and rode the horses back to the township during the small hours of the morning. Next day we were advised by telephone that a lunatic, wearing his birthday clothes, had been seen near a lagoon a few miles out. Arresting parties were sent out to secure the unfortunate man, and, on arriving at the locality, found a samaritan of a farmer had shed his clothes and was making heroic efforts to land the buggy which was sinking fast in the mud

This same night a small boy was reported missing, and search parties were out in all directions. Waterholes were dragged and so forth, and at about midnight he was found in the backyard of his parents' residence, having taken refuge there in the early part of the evening and forgot to announce that he wasn't lost.
